LOCAL NEWS.

Nogales is to have a new Board of Trade.

George Psomas is the proud possessor of a new auto. It's a Buick.

C. M. Wellsford, the Noria land man, has been a Nogales visitor several days this week.

Engineer Race, formerly with the Sonora railway, has returned to Nogales to again make his home.

Attorney Frank J. Barry was a visitor in Tucson the forepart of the week on business. He motored cross-country.

Messrs. R. Stephenson and Frank Weimer, departed the forepart of the week for St. Louis, on private business.

Otto H. Herold, cashier of the First National Bank of Nogales, this week received and is now driving a handsome new Case auto.

County Recorder Phil Herold is out in the Sonoita-Elgin country, visiting friends and acquaintances. Mr. Herold is a candidate for re-election.

Frank Curtis, the well known mining man, in charge of gold properties in Sonora, near Poza, was a business visitor in town the forepart of the week from the south.

Ed. Briggs, local manager for the Nogales Lumber Company, reports good business. He is sure his company made on mistake when they picked Nogales as a winner.

Tom Burch is wearing a broad smile of contentment these days. It's a fine boy. Dr. Beckert, the attending physician, reports mother and little one doing fine. Congratulations, Tom.

The dance given at the Masonic Hall last Tuesday by the enlisted men of the 12th infantry, was a very pleasant affair, everybody having a fine time. Music by the 12th infantry orchestra.

Mrs. Redwine, wife of Conductor W. W. Redwine, is getting along nicely at the Sisters' Hospital, where she was successfully operated upon last week by Drs. Smelker and Beckert.

George Januel, the expert German barber, on Morley Ave., in Brickwood building, guarantees his work, and respectfully invites you to give him a trial. Everything neat and clean. Hair Cutting a specialty. adv.

Charley Harrison, one of Santa Cruz county's best known pioneer citizens, was a business visitor in Nogales the forepart of the week. Mrs. Harrison accompanied him. They were guests at the National.

Vic Wager, of Duquesne, candidate for county assessor, spent several days at the county seat this week, being accompanied by his wife. Up to date Vic, who is a Democrat, has no opposition for nomination.

Mrs. Earhart, wife of County Treasurer R. E. Earhart, is enjoying a visit in the country, with friends over Canille-way, which at this time of the year is one of the most delightful sections in southern Arizona.

Mark Lulley is getting along fine, and is slowly, but surely recovering his former good health. He is loud in his praise of the splendid treatment he received at the Mira Monte Sanitarium, where he took the milk cure.

Masson, the French bird-man, who has been in the employ of constitutionalists in Sonora, is back from Los Angeles, where he went two months ago to secure some important parts for his machine, which is at Hermosillo.

Jimmie Goodman, one of Nogales' best known young Democrats, in another column announces himself a candidate for constable. Jimmie is some vote-getter and if he receives the nomination, thinks he can land the desired plum.

Fred. Carothers, the graphite man, has for several days past been a guest at the Montezuma hotel, from Sonora, Mexico. He hopes soon to see the internal troubles in Mexico settled, at which time work at the graphite properties will be resumed.

It is stated on good authority that the great copper mines at Cananea, will close down today, thereby throwing several thousand men out of work. Yesterday a large number of men were laid off, and the remainder will be out of employment today.

Manager Ben Evans of the Montezuma Hotel, expects early next week to have his new private telephone system completed. There will be fifty telephones in the new exchange, which will be up-to-the-minute, and a great convenience to guests of the big hotel.

Reports of the execution of Juan Saenz, telegraph operator at Magdalena, by Calles soldiers, is denied by prominent citizens of Magdalena, now in Nogales. The operator was arrested but has not been executed. He was accused of being a Maytorena sympathizer.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Purdy have gone to enjoy a week's vacation at the big Richard Brady ranch in Pima county, managed by their son-in-law, Mr. Charles Ruppelius, formerly of this place. Dr. and Mrs. Purdy will be met at Tucson by Mr. Ruppelius, and the trip from there to the ranch will be by automobile.

Mrs. Edwin McFarland, of Patagonia, spent yesterday here consulting with her local lieutenants. She is a candidate for superintendent of schools. Her Democratic opponent, Mrs. Josephine Saxon, of Nogales, is now in the country looking after her fences. Both ladies are making a good, clean fight. The kind that win in the long run.

The party given Thursday evening, by Miss Josephine Titcomb, at the beautiful home of her parents on Nob Hill, was a delightful affair. Those present were the Misses Josephine Titcomb, Margaret Wylie, Mildred Fowler, Helen Forbes; Messrs. Edward Titcomb, Jr., William Cavanaugh, Harry Chenoweth, Jr., Harry Hobson, Eugene Sykes and Herbert Wood.

J. A. Legarra, manager of the Red House, now in the east buying goods for the big emporium on Morley avenue, writes from New York City that he is having a fine time and is making some dandy purchases of up-to-the-minute goods for the Nogales trade. During Manager Legarra's absence in the east, Don Ramon Vasquez, owner of the Red House, is in active charge of the store.

Mark Manning, of the Sonoita country, this county, has been spending several days in Nogales this week. Mr. Manning is one of the Democratic candidates for supervisor. He owns one of the best farms in the Sonoita country. While here he was chaperoned around by Attorney Purdum, also a Democratic candidate. Attorney Purdum aspires to the office of county attorney.

Colonel Ben Ashbey of the Sonora railway, in charge of the last passenger train south since the constitutionalists took charge of the property of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, is "tied up" in Hermosillo. While Col. Ben is not really and truly "tied up," he's as good as tied up, since he can't get away. Conductor Jack Woodrum, now in the city, who was "tied up" many months at Empalme and Guaymas, says the colonel has his sincere sympathy. That's what Jack says.

Harry Grace, formerly of Nogales, now of Los Angeles, where he and his family have a fine residence, is a business visitor in Nogales. From here he will go to Sonora, on business connected with a big land deal in which he is interested. Mr. Grace resided in Sonora many years, and is well and favorably known there, and on the international border. Several years ago he was agent at this place for the Southern Pacific.

This week candidates for county office have been busy getting acquainted in the country, especially out in the splendid dry farm section, Elgin and Sonoita, where there are many new-comers who at the coming primary election, will cast their first vote in Santa Cruz county. In former years Tubac was the scene of battle for votes. This year, however, the farming section will in a large measure figure in the final results.

Many Americans are in Nogales, impatiently awaiting an opportunity to return to their properties in Sonora. The trains on the Sonora, being run by orders of the military, only go as far south as Santa Ana, where it is said the Callistas are mobilizing to fight Governor Maytorena's forces.

E. M. Dickerman, who at the meeting of Elks recently held in Denver, was elected Grand Esteemed Loyal Knight, was a visitor in the city last Tuesday, from Tucson, where for many years he has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific. Friends of Mr. Dickerman are planning to run him for Grand Exalted Ruler in 1916. Tuesday night Tucson Elks gave Dick a rousing reception. The occasion will long be pleasantly remembered by all.

A. M. Conard, president and manager of the Sonora Copper Company, who has been enjoying a couple of days in the city with his interesting family, expects to go south today. The properties of the Sonora Copper Company are located at Cobre Grande near Noria, Sonora. Both the mines and smelter have been idle since the war in Mexico, but just as soon as conditions warrant, operations will be resumed under Mr. Conard's personal direction.

Hon. Mose Drachman, city father and prominent Tucson business man, has been a business visitor in the city a couple of days this week. The gentleman has for many years been prominent in Democratic politics. He is a candidate for member of house of representatives, from Pima county. Being a native son of the ancient and honorable pueblo, he is among the best known, most popular citizens of the old town. His seat in the coming legislature is assured.

The constitutionalists under Colonel Calles, held a rousing celebration in Nogales, Sonora, last Thursday night, in honor of the evacuation of the federals from Mexico City. Hundreds of enthusiastic soldiers and citizens paraded the streets, led by the 3rd infantry band, which later gave a concert in the city plaza, where patriotic speeches were made by the followers of General Carranza, the first chief of the constitutionalists. Many citizens from the American side of the line attended the celebration, which lasted several hours.

Tom Hind, assistant superintendent of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, returned Tuesday from a long trip south, over the line, being accompanied by Frank Krupp, of this city, who handled Mr. Hind's especial. Frank reports having had a most strenuous trip, specially was the going exciting through the war zone in the state of Sinaloa, near Mazatlan. When the Hind special was fired upon several times, Frank says he thought sure his time had come. But he "slipped 'er in the high," and out-ran the bullets, some of which kicked up the dirt all around the flying motor car.

Thursday evening W. G. Bowman, candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, returned from the Elgin-Sonoita country, where he had been enjoying a visit with his "country cousins." He reports that section as looking fine, and says bumper crops are assured the so-called dry farmers this year. He says the hospitable people there, many of whom are from the south, treat everybody so fine, he had to go back, and take his family with him. Yesterday afternoon the Bowmans, the VanMouricks and Herolds motored out to Elgin to attend a dance there last night. Mr. VanMourick is a candidate for supervisor, on the Democratic ticket.

L. J. F. Jaeger, proprietor of the Montezuma hotel of this place, and the big Santa Rita at Tucson, paid Nogales a visit yesterday, between trains. Mr. Jaeger and his wife were on their way to Europe on pleasure bent, when Germany turned loose her war dogs. They got as far as New York City. Mr. Jaeger says the weather is very warm in the east, and he has made up his mind to see Arizona first. He and his wife are arranging a trip to the mountains, in the near future. He expressed himself as greatly pleased with the able manner his big local hotel is conducted by Manager Ben Evans, one of the best hotel managers in the country. The big dining room in the Montezuma building, was an agreeable surprise to Mr. Jaeger.

Wm. A. Parr, of Winslow, Democratic candidate for the office of State Treasurer, was a busy man in Nogales on Tuesday. Mr. Parr is making a thorough campaign over the state, and says he feels sure that he's going to land the plum on September 8th, next. After that he believes the going will be easy. While here he met many old-time friends.

Yesterday afternoon a big troop train carrying Colonel Calles' soldiers, and a large number of passengers for points as far south as Santa Ana, pulled out of Nogales. The troop train was in charge of Major Gomez, who for some time past has been in command of the Calles troops stationed at this point. The 3rd infantry band accompanied the troops, who are said to be going south for the purpose of giving battle to the constitutionalists under Governor Maytorena, in the event that a settlement of the trouble between the Callistas and Maytorenas, can't be effected. The outcome of the present internal trouble in Sonora is impatiently awaited by all who desire peace in our neighbor state to the south of us. All saloons are closed in the town across the international border, and the town is now as quiet as a New England village. Perhaps, "the calm before the storm."

"RED" BILL MARTIN BURIED.

Many Friends Pay Final Tribute to Deceased.

The Salinas, California Index, dated August 7th, contained the following account of the funeral of the late "Red" Bill Martin, who was well and favorably known in this section:

"The last sad rites for the late W. H. Martin, victim of an unfortunate automobile accident on the Blanco road last Tuesday night, were performed at Elks' Hall this afternoon in the presence of a large assemblage of his sorrowing relatives, sympathizing friends and brother Elks. The lodge room in which the remains lay in state was crowded to its capacity. The ceremonies were beautiful and impressive, conducted by the officers and members of the lodge. They consisted of the ritualistic service, music by Rowling's orchestra, a vocal solo by R. D. Logan and singing by a quartet consisting of Edgar McCollum, Mrs. A. G. Winckler, Miss Beatrice Porter and R. D. Logan. The orchestra played while the mourners and friends were being seated and at appropriate intervals during the service. Mr. Logan, as part of the ritual, sang 'The Vacant Chair.' The quartet sang 'Lead, Kindly Light,' and 'Abide With Me.' At the conclusion of the service friends passed around the flower bedecked bier and took a last look at the placid features of the departed.

"The funeral cortege was escorted by the lodge. It was quite long, hundreds of people from Salinas, the neighboring country districts and abroad following the remains to their resting place in I. O. O. F. cemetery. The remains were consigned to earth with the commitment ceremony of the Elks. The floral offerings and floral pieces were profuse and beautiful, the newly made mound being completely banked and obscured by them. Following were the pallbearers: Carmel Martin, James Martin and R. H. Martin, cousins of the deceased, and Earl McHarry, W. J. Wallace and Sam Black, Jr., boyhood friends."

Fifteen Thousand Population in 1929.

Thirty representative business men of Nogales met together Thursday night and, with a fine show of enthusiasm that augurs well for the future of Nogales, made preliminary arrangements for the re-organization of the Board of Trade.

A public meeting is called for next Thursday night at 8:30 at the Santa Cruz Club at which meeting the report of the committee on organization will be presented and a permanent organization effected.

Collector of Customs Hardy made the keynote speech of the evening and if anyone was in doubt as to the usefulness of the Board of Trade before his speech, they were well convinced when he had concluded.

Everyone interested in the welfare of Nogales and Santa Cruz County is invited and urged to be present at the meeting next Thursday night. A fine programme of music, interesting speakers, moving pictures, etc., is being arranged.
